

: How does the Iconix solution work?

Iconix eMail ID confirms the source of email messages using industry-standard authentication technologies such as Sender ID and DomainKeys. After we get a positive result from these authentication checks, we check that result against a list of identified senders. This multi-step process is required to make sure we aren't adding a Trademark icon to a spoofed message.

Unique solution ID: #1011

Author: Customer Support

Last update: 2006-08-25 15:40